Things we

Every freshman has a "big sister"- a junior who will help them with any and all things Louisville.

Birthdays during the summer? You will be assigned an un-birthday during the school year so your friends can still celebrate by decorating your locker!

Sweatpant Season! We get to wear sweatpants and cozy boots to school from November to March.

about Louisville

Senior lawn is sacred! Only seniors are allowed to walk on it. Every year on the first day of school, the new senior class will host a "takeover" where they decorate the whole lawn with their class color.

We have an exchange day with our brother school, Crespi. The boys come to our campus or we go to theirs!

One week each semester, each class battles it out for the ultimate bragging right: Spirit Week Champions!!

What's it like to go to

It feels a bit weird at first, but then you realize that you get to spend your high school experience surrounded by like-minded girls!

Going to an all-girls' school doesn't mean you will never be around boys! Our brother school, Crespi, offers lots of opportunities to meet and hang out with boys, but when you are here on campus it is all about you!

Never being overshadowed by boys' sports or feeling intimidated to join a typically male dominated field, because everything here is for girls!

You learn how to be the boldest, most authentic version of yourself. There is a place for everyone here - whether you are an athlete, a leader, or an artist, it is all about YOU when you are at Louisville.

an all-girls' school?

At Louisville, you meet other girls who eventually become friends for life - you really do grow up together!

Wearing the weirdest, funniest, most extravagant outfits for pep rallies. Which, of course, means lots and lots of singing and dancing!

You will get the chance to play a wide variety of characters in theatre productions! This is a great way to expand your skills and gives our girls unique industry experience.

You never feel pressured to dress up for class or wear makeup, and you receive lots of compliments when you do! In the classroom, it is all about you and the way

What's for lunch?

Food is never in short supply here at Louisville! From Louis Café (our food service serving breakfast, lunch, and snacks) to the "vendies" (vending machines) there are many delicious

Louis Café

Load your Louisville ID card and run up to St. Louis Hall for a great lunch! Our food service has a wide variety of options, with daily specials that always give us something new to try. Some schoolwide favorites are the taco salad and the chocolate muffins!

Vendies

Are you in a rush? Maybe you just don't feel like waiting in line...check out Louisville's amazing vending machines behind St. Louis Hall. Stocked with healthy options (and some not so healthy

Dads Club BBQ

A treasured event at Louisville- yummy hamburgers, veggie burgers or cheeseburgers, something for everyone!

What's in your backpack?

Put the YOU in Uniform

Dress Uni

A few times a month for special school events we wear our "dress uniform." Complete with the cutest blazers and penny loafers, this truly is a Louisville staple! Some of the girls even bring their penny loafers with them to college after they

Express yourself

Scarves, scrunchies, jewelry and nail polish are all allowed and are only a few of the ways you can show off your personality at Louisville!

Our Louisville Sweats

These sweatpants are a uniform essential. Paired with cozy boots, Louisville's sweatpant season is a time that we all look forward to.

The Arts

Visual + Media Arts

Explore your passion by creating works of art through drawing, painting, sculpting, photography, film and even computer graphics! Each year, Louisville students display their work not only on campus, but also throughout the city at various art exhibits and competitions. Not to mention, you are constantly surrounded by nature here on our gorgeous campus - how could you not be inspired?!

Sing

Whether you like to sing on stage, or just sing in the car, we have a place for you! Everyone from the shower singer to the professional can share the spotlight with chances to sing in liturgies, plays, choirs, and seasonal concerts. We also have a Showstoppers concert every other year where all are invited to come and perform any talent you choose.

Backstage

Do you like being part of the action, but don't necessarily love the spotlight? Are you interested in directing or costume/set design? Join the theatre tech team, where you have the opportunity to learn theatre direction and design as well as learn to work lighting, costumes and sound for all productions!

Dance

The Dance Concert is a great opportunity to choreograph your own dances and be in as many numbers as you want! Our Concert Dancers cover disciplines from hip hop to pointe, for those girls who already have dance experience and love to perform! For those just starting out, we have other classes at the beginner and intermediate levels!

At Louisville, the Performing Arts department pushes you to your fullest potential by challenging you to move out of your comfort zone. This way, you'll get to meet and collaborate with other artists that will enhance your creativity!

mainstage Productions

In the fall and spring, students participate in musicals and plays. Drama teacher Mr. Dan Mailley has put on fall productions such as Twelve Angry Women and The Crucible. In the spring, Performing Arts Department Chair Ms. Tracy Powell heads the annual musical production which has included Annie Get Your Gun and Once Upon a Mattress. Participating students will find a fun and inclusive environment which focuses on their natural talents while pushing their boundaries to new and exciting limits!

There are a wide variety of opportunities for you to meet industry professionals and pursue job shadowing in the field that you are interested in!

Do what you love

Journalism & Media, Law & Social Justice, STEM, Medicine & Health Sciences

Although Louisville is a Catholic school, girls from all religious backgrounds are welcomed and integrated into liturgies and retreats.

Campus Ministry

The place to go when you're feeling down, stressed out, or just need someone to talk to. You can always find a loaf of bread and a jar of Nutella in the cabinets, or raid the snacks that come back from retreats! There is always a friendly face ready to offer help, advice, or just a hug whenever needed.

Retreats

Louisville students experience four very unique retreats that encourage them to get to know their classmates, make good choices and encounter who they want to become.

Service

A very important part of the Louisville tradition. Every day we are reminded that we are called to 'heal, unify, and transform the world around us.'

Ask Louie

How can I make new friends?

Louisville is a very welcoming and accepting environment. Starting at Orientation, current students lead ice-breakers designed to bring out all of the similarities between you and your classmates! Just being around girls in your classes, sports or extracurriculars (like clubs) are going to make friendships inevitable. Remember that it isn't just you who is looking for a new friend! Even if you're a little shy, Louisville girls will welcome you! You will get out of high school what you put into it, so get involved and meet friends that will last you a lifetime!

Are there any perks to attending an all-girls' school?

It's an adjustment, not seeing boys in the classroom, but in the best way! Being at an all-girls' school definitely creates a very comfortable environment for our students that allows them to be their most authentic selves. Research also shows that because an all-girls school capitalizes on our unique learning styles, this allows us to thrive academically and individually!
